A SCHOOL YEAR TO

Off to the Eisteddfod

BE REMEMBERED

The session of 1949-1950 has indeed been "a school year to be remembered", a year which witnessed many changes at Ouachita — a new principal, Mr. I. C. Strickland, and a new assistant principal, Mr. S. R. Braley; a number of new teachers; an enlarged and improved Agricultural Department; remodeled Distributive Education quarters; a new book room; a resuming of athletic contests with Neville; a homecoming dance; a lunch program with staggered periods; a shortened school day; a $5,200,000 school tax election, $300,000 of which is to be used in repairing, redecorating, and improving Ouachita Parish High School.

FOREWORD

Ouachita's insignia, a Lion, is almost synonymous with Ouachita Parish High School, so frequently do we use it in our school life. Our school strives in its activities—scholastic and extra-curricular—to exemplify those qualities associated with the Lion, King of the Jungle, such as strength, daring courage, and determination. For these reasons the staff chose the Lion as the Roarer 1950 theme.

In all its sections the staff has tried to portray as many as possible of the incidents and features of 1949-1950. It presents the Roarer 1950 with the hope that in years to come it will bring pleasure and will be indeed a treasured book of memories.

MRS. LENORE JONES

DEDICATION

We, the staff, lovingly dedicate the 1950 ROARER to Mrs. Lenore Jones.

In our memories, written indelibly, are her animated voice, sparkling eyes, ready smile, keen sense of humor, spontaneous wit, buoyant spirit, and indomitable courage. We shall ever cherish her daily example of fairness, understanding, kindness, cheerfulness, and patience. Mrs. Lenore Jones was indeed a teacher to be remembered.

OUR PRINCIPAL

MR. I. C. STRICKLAND

When Mr. Strickland accepted the principalship of Ouachita, he said, "I shall not try to take Mr. Hayes' place, but I hope I shall make a place for myself." This he is doing by his friendliness, his sincerity, his genuine interest in our school, and his judicious approach to a solution of its problems. Under his leadership Ouachita is continuing to move forward.

THE ROARER is the project of the entire senior class. The class of 1950 has participated one-hundred per cent, each member of the class buying a copy of The Roarer. Many took part in selling it to underclassmen and in soliciting advertisements. From these workers the sponsors chose the staff, membership in which is a coveted honor. Staff membership is based upon interest, aptitude, salesmanship, time to schedule a yearbook period, and dependability.

Countless hours were spent by the staff in making this yearbook. Into it went determination, one of the traits typified by Ouachita's "lion"—determination to have the Roarer measure up to Ouachita's high standards.

The Ouachita Lion of 1948-1949 won an International Honor Award, the highest possible rating in the Quill and Scroll Critical Service.

At the conference of the Louisiana High School Press Association, of which Margaret Ann Tatum was president, the paper placed superior, and Mary Jo Inzina won second place in feature writing.

The Lion is a project of the English department, with Miss Mabel Lann as sponsor. Other teachers who supervise various sections of the paper are Miss Latham, Mrs. Tatum, Miss Wall, Miss Smith, Mrs. Hargrove, Mrs. Parker, and Miss McKaskle.

ENSEMBLE GOES TO WALES

Ouachita's Ensemble, director, and chaperones pose at the Missouri Pacific Depot for photographer Marvin Dubos before beginning their trip to the Eisteddfod, Llangollen, Wales.

Llangollen, Wales, is a bit of fairyland straight from the story books.

Danny Sullivan and Bob Clay were entertained during the Eisteddfod in a castle-like home, part of which was built in 1117.

The Eisteddfod over, Ouachita's singers wait for a train from London, anticipating many other wonderful experiences before the homeward journey.

The Avenue of Flags on the Eisteddfod grounds welcomed the representatives of many nations and gave the place a gala appearance.

The purpose of the Latin Club is primarily that of furthering interest in the classics. Membership is based on reasonable scholastic standing and interest in Latin. The policy of the club has been guided primarily by the second-year pupils who are living up to the motto—Res non Verba. However, both first and second year pupils have contributed to programs dealing with the language itself, with Roman affairs, and with present derived benefits. Original contributions have been especially interesting.

One of the fastest growing departments in Ouachita Parish High School is the Speech Department, which has developed from one small class to six large fundamental speech classes and one class in drama.

Make-Up Practice

Christmas Program

SPEECH DEPARTMENT

The Speech Department tries to develop in the students good speech in everyday life and an appreciation of dramatics and fine arts. The students in Speech I take an active part in debating, public speaking, oral interpretation, story telling, forums, drama, everyday conversation and individual voice training. Students taking Speech II get training in all phases of drama.

Included in the activities of the speech department this year are the Christmas program with the choir, a series of one-act plays, and the three-act snior play, Double Door, directed by Miss June Shultz.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

FUTURE FARMERS

This has been a year of "firsts" with the Ouachita F. F. A. chapter. For the first time in the chapter's history the degree of Chapter Farmer was bestowed on some of its members. An F. F. A. judging team entered in competition with other teams for the first time this year. Another outstanding "first" was the rodeo which the chapter held in April. The 1948-'50 membership was the largest in the chapter's history.

Making its debut in Ouachita club circles this year, its members and sponsor, Mrs. Hargrove, have been praised for making their column, "Up and Down the Halls," better than ever before. The club seeks a more detailed coverage of school news, promotes interest in journalism, and gives some students who are not members of the Lion staff an opportunity to participate in the Lion's publication.
